

WHEREAS, It is a proven fact that traffic accidents sap in death and injury more human resources than any other community problem; and,

WHEREAS, The human problem is not only a deep concern of the entire community, but is a particular care and abiding interest of the spiritual leaders of the churches and synagogues—religiously and morally; and,

WHEREAS, The long Memorial Day weekend marks the beginning of the summer and vacation heavy driving season; and,

WHEREAS, The clergy of our churches and synagogues have consistently urged our citizens to accept the moral responsibility involved in driving:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, RICHARD F. KNEIP, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do again request the clergy to direct the impact of their moral and spiritual leadership to the conscience of their congregations, in order to convince them that driving to prevent accidents is morally right and a blessing; and do hereby proclaim May 25, and 26, 1974, as

TRAFFIC SAFETY SABBATH

In South Dakota, and I urge our citizens in every community to give active and loyal support to their spiritual leaders by attending the church of their choice on Traffic Safety Sabbath and by driving safely on May 27, 1974, which is Memorial Day and the beginning of the summer heavy traffic season, and every day of the year.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and the Great Seal of the State of South Dakota, in Pierre, the Capital City, this 18th day of March, in the Year of Our Lord, Nineteen Hundred and Seventy-Four
